

W W

n n

k k

r r

Lupinus perennis

Wild lupine has spikes
of purple pea-like
flowers.

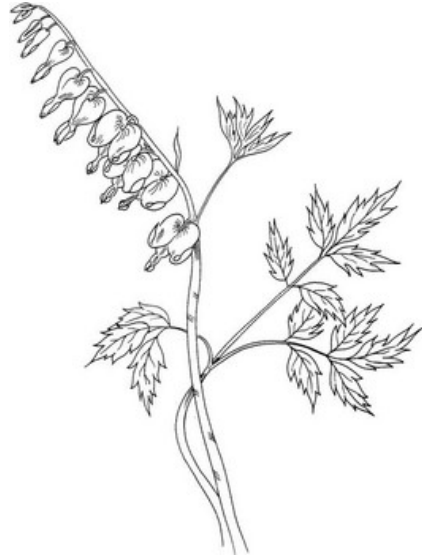

S S

d d

x x

k k

Licentia eximia

Wild bleeding hearts are also called turkey corn.
They like shade.

l l

r r

p p

f f

Claytonia virginica

Spring beauties are only six inches tall with small pink flowers.

L L

G G

s s

ph ph

Lilium superbum

Turk's cap lilies have yellow and pink or orange petals.

c c

m m

p p

b b

Caltha palustris

Marsh marigolds have big yellow flowers
starting in April.

L L

fp fp

b b

w w

Lygodium palmatum

Climbing ferns grow in moist woods, twining
around other plants.

Endangered in Michigan, Indiana, New York, and Vermont.

T T

p p

u u

k k

Trillium undulatum

Painted trilliums have three white petals with dark pink centers.

a a

g g

y y

r r

Asplenium ruta-muraria

The wall rue is a tiny fern that grows in cracks.

C C

B B

d d

h h

Castanea dentata

American chestnut trees are in the Beech family.

U U

f f

n n

w w

Utricularia inflata

The floating bladderwort is a rootless aquatic carnivorous plant.

Endangered in Michigan, New York, and Maryland.

