Natural Substances: Aquamarine

Aquamarine is the blue-green or turquoise variety of the mineral beryl, which can also be orange, yellow, green, or colorless. This gemstone quality mineral is mined in Russia, Sri Lanka, and Brazil. Aquamarine is the state gem of Colorado, where it is also found.