

Invertebrates: Arachnids

Arachnids are a subgroup of arthropods that have eight jointed legs and a cephalothorax. They have no antennae or wings. Of course the most familiar arachnids are spiders, but this group also includes scorpions, ticks, and mites.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---