

Natural Substances: Ivory

Ivory is the natural white substance found in elephant tusks, as well as in the teeth and tusks of a few other mammals. It has long been used for piano keys, billiard balls, and precious decorative items. However, the demand for ivory has completely wiped out elephants in some areas such as northern Africa.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---